

Measure this distance with a tape measure. This is your slope over the length of your shed.